

Prayer for the Dying

Risen Lord Jesus,
You lived the brokenness and suffering on your cross.
Let all who are in pain and dying be given wings for their flagging spirits.

Be their strength for you are Strength.
Be their peace for you are Peace.
Be their hope for you are Hope.

Help them to know the nearness of you in this time of transformation.
For in the broken body you promise life anew;
In the fear of letting go you promise you will catch us.
Be the leading light..... to your joyful dwelling place.
